Still More Letters Come From Our Men In Service

Nearly All Have Been Heard from Except Those Overseas; Contributors May Secure Souvenir Copies of Bob Squier's Letter and Photographs Taken at Flag Unfurling

The letters from the Service Men which are printed this week will be the last of the series, as nearly all of the domestic locations have reported safe delivery.

Only intermittent acknowledgments are now expected, but it should be noted that very few cards have been received from England, Ireland or North Africa, where many Narberth men are serving.

Obviously, this is due to the difficult mails, and it is planned to print later whatever additional letters come in after a sufficient number has accumulated.

Some few souvenirs of the occasion are available to contributors in the form of:

1—The letter which young Bob Squier composed and which was very favorably received.

2—Copies of the photographs which were taken at the Service-Flag unfurling last Fall, one showing the faces of many of the relatives of the men and the other a picture of probably the largest group ever assembled in Narberth.

Those who desire these complimentary trophies of a measurable achievement should phone Narberth 26-83.

Here is the further comment about the Christmas Boxes:

I want to express my great appreciation for the unusual Christmas box containing the very sizable quantity of practical articles. I am sure the boys from Narberth were the envy of men from other towns which did not have the foresight or aggressiveness to provide for their men as our town did.

My work gives me a keen appreciation of just how much of a boost such a wonderful remembrance from the home-town gives to a man's morale. If more communities were as thoughtful my job of morale maintenance would certainly be considerably lightened.

The attractive wrappings and the generous number of pieces in the box kept the recipient in as much suspense as if he were opening presents at the family tree. Again, many thanks.

JAMES S. WEATHERBY.

Thanks you so much. Gift box received and it's more than very nice. Arrived on time in fine shape. Thanks to the Citizens of Narberth for a wonderful kindness.

JACK RECORDS.

I regret that through moving and traveling this card has been so long delayed. Allow me to express my deepest and sincerest appreciation to Narberth for your kindness and thoughtfulness. It was immense.

W. N. SAUNDERS.

I certainly would like all of you to know how deeply and truly grateful I am for your splendid Christmas Box. It does a man's heart good to know that his home town thinks that much of him. Thank you many times.

SAMUEL J. CLEVELAND.

This brief card can express only a small suggestion of the gratitude I felt when I received the generous gift box you sent me for Christmas. My address has changed recently, but I received the carton before I left. Thank you ever so much. No town was ever more thoughtful.

T. R. MILLIGAN.

I cannot thank you enough for your grand Christmas Box. It could not have been better, or more useful, or more appreciated. It made me feel proud and glad to be from Narberth. Best wishes and many thanks.

JOHN GILROY, JR.

Received wonderful package from Narberth. Was greatly surprised and pleased. Every gift was very useful and very welcome. Thank you sincerely for remembering me so handsomely.

THOMAS A. ERNE.

I don't know how to express myself nor how to give sufficient thanks for the swell gift that Narberth sent me. It's great to know that everybody is backing us 100% and in return all of us who are away will do our best for Narberth.

You can bet big on that.

J. ROBERT NORDBLUM.

When I received my grand box of Christmas gifts, the first thought that entered my mind was that other fellows from home, fellows that I knew, Johnny Brennan, "Ock" Smith, "Bek" Burgess (I could name many more) had received the same and I could easily visualize the smile on their faces such as the one I had. It really brought back memories of a swell town and a swell bunch of fellows. I am grateful to you.

ALFRED FILIPONE.

Thank you very kindly for the wonderful Christmas Box and for making an otherwise drab Christmas a much more cheerful one. The gifts are well and are being used every day. Thanks again and hope you all had a very pleasant Christmas, too.

JOHN S. JONES.

I regret very much having misplaced this card and thereby failing to reply sooner. The grand Christmas box containing so many useful gifts arrived on time. My thanks and appreciation of the thought from the Community can hardly be expressed adequately in the few words possible on this postcard. When time permits I shall do better. In the meantime, many sincere thanks.

JAMES J. PETERS.

Your fine gift box arrived safely and is being thoroughly enjoyed. Never have I seen so many useful articles and so much amusement concentrated in such a comparatively small space. Certainly it's good to be remembered by the folks at home. Thank you all very much.

WILLIAM H. KUHN.

I want to thank you for the fine Christmas Gift Box you sent me, and which deserved much more than a mere postcard. It sure is a swell gift and every item will come in handy. I will never forget what you have done for me. Thank you again and again.

TOM RUTTY

I want to acknowledge receipt of the fine Christmas Box you so generously sent me. It just reached me after a delay which could not have been avoided. I want to express my gratitude to the people of Narberth not only for the grand gift which brought me such great pleasure, but also for the kindly remembrance of the fact that I was away. To Narberth, to her citizens and to you, Sir, who represent them, I send my sincerest thanks.

RAYMOND E. YOUNG, Jr.

Words can never express my full and deepest appreciation on receiving such a well chosen assortment of swell gifts. To each and everyone of you—Thank you million.

R. A. NORDBOM

Received your wonderful package of gifts and I do not know how to thank you, except to promise to do my full share in the big job ahead.

FRANK MCCONNELL

I received your generous Christmas parcel. It really was a wonderful surprise to think that you at home would remember me over here. Many, many thanks and be assured we will attempt to repay your great generosity.

A. LYON

Many thanks to the citizens of Narberth for their great generosity. It truly reflects the grand spirit of our community. Each article in the box was wonderful.

JOHN COOK

I certainly want to thank you for the fine Gift Box I received today. I assure you it is a most useful box and both the gift and the thought are greatly appreciated. I shall not forget what you have done for me.

RICHARD MASON

This is probably one of the latest cards that you have received, but I was moved so much recently that your package only caught up to me tonight. It sure is just as wonderful as the reports that have reached me about it, and it certainly is a fine feeling to know that "Narberth" (Continued On Page Three)

Double Quota in Narberth Drive

War Chest Workers Hear Director at Campaign Rally

"The Narberth quota of the United War Chest is more than double that of 1942," Mrs. Robert P. Wetherald, Narberth director, told a meeting of war chest workers tonight.

"We will have to work twice as hard for it," she said. "Last year the United Charities Campaign set our quota at $2,200 and we turned in $2,500. This year Narberth has been asked to raise $4,600. I know we will do our job as well as other communities which have increased quotas."

The meeting, held in the auditorium of the Narberth Public School, Essex and Sabine aves., was attended by more than 170 volunteer workers from Narberth including 18 captains and 150 solicitors.

The captains reported to the meeting that substantial donations to the chest already have been made.

An official film depicting the work of the war chest agencies was shown, and a short dramatic skit was given to demonstrate to the solicitors how and how not to appeal to prospective donors.

The captains and their teams met to discuss their part in the drive and kits containing campaign literature were distributed. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the meeting.

Mrs. Wetherald announced that Harry B. Wall, 217 Narberth av., has loaned the war chest two windows in his store, at 213 Narberth av., for advertising displays during the drive, which terminates February 10.

Mothers' Association Elects 1943 Officers

The Christian Mothers' Association of Mater Misericordiae and Waldron Academies, Merion, held their bi-annual election of officers on January 12 at the Copvent in Merion.

Those chosen to serve for the new term are: Mrs. Joseph I. Mc Nicol, president; Mrs. John J. Stanton, vice president; Mrs. D. Howard Silcox, secretary; Mrs. Peter F. Hagan, recording secretary; Mrs. Charles A. Dougherty, treasurer.

The retiring president, Mrs. Charles W. Toebe, was named Honorary President of the Association.

Medical Missionary To Speak Here

Dr. J. C. McCracken, who has represented the Christian Association of the University of Pennsylvania in China for a generation will address the meeting of the Pennsylvania Medical Missionary Society January 25 at 2:45 p. m., at Haverford Court Hotel, Haverford.

Hostesses for this meeting are Mrs. John W. Sloan, Mrs. B. Frank Roger, and Mrs. Olive Straup.

CORRECTION

A typographical error in "Our Town's" story last week about the Narberth bank's annual report caused it to read that the bank's depositors number over 500. We apologize. The number of depositors is over 5,000.

Lower Merion Averages 56 Points A Game In Boosting Loop Streak To 22 In A Row

"Our team is red hot!" was the favorite chant of Duquesne High a couple years ago before Lower Merion dusted them off in the finals of the state tournament.

And surely there isn't a better tag for the present Lower Merion High squad, the only difference being the L. M. fans probably will not have to swallow it as did the Duquesne fans in '41 at the Palaestra.

Lower Merion is getting better with each passing game and right now is about the hottest scoring combination Coach Bill Anderson has ever put together. The Maroon hasn't scored less than 51 points in the league and in the last four games it amassed 223 points, an average of almost 56 per game.

Not since the days of Al Bonniwell and Warren Lockwood, has Lower Merion had a team with such terrific punch.

As a result, the league games have been just one glorified romp

Ask for Data on Tax Adjustments Council Says Merchants Want to Maintain Good Services

The Narberth Borough Council has received a letter from the Narberth Business Council asking for information regarding the proposed assessment adjustments in the business district.

The councilmen are framing a reply.

"In order that we may discuss this fully among ourselves," wrote Walter G. Case, president of the Council, "and consult with our solicitor, it would be possible to give the taxpayers, who constitute the membership of the Narberth Business Council, all the information available on the assessment adjustment proposal."

Case declared that all merchants were faced with mounting wartime problems.

He said: "Because most of the merchants feel a direct responsibility to maintain the best customer service possible during a period when extensive rationing will be necessary, you can appreciate with us that all proposals directly or indirectly affecting merchandising should be closely scrutinized by all of us. Shopping at home in Narberth is becoming so imperative these days that both customers and merchants must work together to protect what they have."

The retiring president, Mrs. Charles W. Toebe, was named Honorary President of the Association.

18 Oil Burners Installed in 1942

With priorities on many building materials construction took a drop in Narberth Borough during the past year.

There were 36 permits issued for operations costing $14,798. Fees charged on issuing these permits amounted to $80. Permits for 18 oil burner permits were issued and these permits brought in fees amounting to $54. Most of the burners were installed during the first part of 1942 before the rationing of fuel oil became severe.

A summary of the construction shows that 11 alterations were made; 5 garages erected, 1 permit issued for new windows, 18 new roofs and 1 permit for siding on a house.

Speaker Discusses Peace Preparations Must Lay Foundations Now Dr. Reid Tells GOP Women

"We must begin now to lay the foundations for a more stable order if we are to have lasting peace," said Dr. Helen Dwight Reid, professor of Politics and Economics at Bryn Mawr College, speaking Tuesday at a meeting of the Lower Merion-Narberth Council of Republican Women held in Haverford.

Dr. Reid warned that "when the time comes for the Peace Conference, we must be prepared as to the line of action we want our government to take. The greatest need at present is the expansion of the structure of the United Nations organization."

"An Anglo-American dominated world is a dangerous proposal. It would mean an Anglo-American police force keeping everyone else in order. We would merely sit on the safety valve and wait for the explosion that would be another war," she predicted.

Dr. Reid believes that World reorganization is too big for any of the proposed plans in existence today. She believes, however, that we should carefully study the merits of all these plans. "We can devise the blueprint at a later stage," she said.

"But we must face the fact that, the world is going to be organized after this war is over. It will be organized with us, or without us, or against us. We must decide whether we will participate or be outsiders."

Mrs. Carl H. Zipf, Bryn Mawr, first vice-president and program chairman of the Council, presided in the absence of the President.

The Legislative Study Group will meet at the home of Mrs. Theodore Phillips, 404 Loves lane, Wynnewood, on January 28. Mrs. Luther Female will talk on the duties of the Secretary of War and a talk on the WAAC will be given by Lt. Bayliss. A report on the Legislature will be given by Mrs. Helen Greenwood, of Cynwyd. Mrs. Phillips asked that members bring a box lunch.

Most Arrests for Overtime Parking

More persons were arrested in Narberth for overtime parking during the past year than for any other traffic violation.

Because of the rationing of gasoline the number of violations should decline as compared to previous years.

Following is a summary of the violations as reported in 1942:

Overtime parking, 49; stop sign violations, 34; automobile accidents, 30; all night parking, 19; parking where signs prohibited, 18; facing against traffic, 9; parking on cross walks, 5; parking in front of private driveways, 4; parking at street intersections, 1; reckless driving, 6; using expired tags, 2; using muffler, 1; removing barricades, 1; operating under influence of liquor, 1; passing at intersection, 2.

Assistance Available On Tax Returns

There will be a representative from the office of the Collector of Internal Revenue at the Bryn Mawr Post Office every Saturday from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. until March 15. He will assist in filing income tax returns and answering tax questions.

NARBERTH SCHOOL NOTES

Under the supervision of Mr. Harkness, the 8th grade history classes held debates last week on topics that they have been studying.

Mr. Lehman has been busy helping 8th grade students with Latin posters and reviewing prepositions with 7th and 8th grade pupils. The Latin posters are now on exhibition in Mr. Lehman's room.

The sixth grade Home Economic classes have been busy finishing colorful peasant aprons. The seventh grade classes are finishing pajamas, while the eighth grade classes are finishing a unit in cooking. This work is under the direction of Miss Taylor.

On Friday, January 8, the pupils of the upper school of Narberth Public School were entertained by Miss Harriman from the Philadelphia Interstate Dairy Council, who gave a puppet show entitled "V for Victory." The play was in three acts the first being Yankee Doodle Dandy which showed George Washington at Valley Forge. The second took place in a trench in France in the last war, it was called "Over There." The third took place in an office in an army air force camp when a boy was making his first solo flight. The play stressed the need of good foods during the war.

Wants to Abolish 4 Mills State Tax Cadwalader Says It Is Wrung from Those Living on Securities

A resolution to lighten the burden for those who are living on income from securities was introduced by Assemblyman Lambert Cadwalader in the House of Representatives at Harrisburg on Monday night.

Cadwalader lives in Gladwynne and represents the First Legislative District of Montgomery County.

The Cadwalader resolution calls for the elimination of the State's four mills personal property tax. It was referred to the ways and means committee of which Edwin Winner, Haboro, another Montgomery County legislator, is chairman.

Vicomte du Marais Succumbs at 75

President of Narberth Fire Co. Was Boro Resident 41 Years

Marie Honore Louis Jean Gabriel Tristan, Vicomte Bourgeois du Marais, president of the Narberth Fire Company, died on Saturday at his home 131 Coulter av., Ardmore, after a long illness. He was 75.

Son of the late Vicomte Bourgeois du Marais, Tristan du Marais was born in Saint-Quentin, France, on November 10, 1867. He spent his boyhood in Algeria, where his father had extensive plantations devoted to fig and wheat raising. When he was 15 he returned to finish his studies in Paris and London.

In 1885, he came to this country to visit an aunt in Baltimore and decided to remain. He married a Baltimore girl, Miss Mary Hewson Martin, and in 1892 came to Philadelphia to live. Five years later they moved to Narberth where they made their home first on Forrest av. and later at 200 Woodside av., until 1938 when they moved to the Ardmore address. Vicomtesse du Marais and their son, Maurice, of Villanova, an attorney, survive him.

Vicomte du Marais, who was formerly associated with the William H. Horstmann Co. and J. J. Wyle & Co., of New York, was one of the founders and charter members of the Narberth Fire Company in 1897 and devoted himself to its interests throughout his lifetime. He was the first chief engineer of the Company, serving in that capacity from 1897 until 1909. From 1909 to 1922 he served as trustee and vice president. In 1922, he succeeded Charles E. Kreamer as president and had

OTHER SOURCES BESIDES MEAT FOR PROTEIN, IRON, VITAMINS

While meat is essential in the diet because of its rich contribution of the B Vitamins, Thiamin, Riboflavin, Niacin, and also because of the protein and iron it supplies — the meal planner should remember that it is not alone from steaks and chops and roasts these excellent nutrients are obtained. Liver, beef, lamb, pork, turkey, leafy vegetables and whole grain cereals in addition to the vitamins all furnish that most important mineral — iron — and turkey, chicken, liver, fish, cottage cheese and soy beans are highly satisfactory sources of protein as well as of iron.

The protein obtained from meats, however, is different in composition from that furnished by plants, so in order to have enough protein in the diet when vegetables are largely depended upon for this nutrient, a wide variety should be eaten, in order that the shortcomings of one may be supplemented by others. And in like manner, when meats are not served as often as formerly, vegetables containing iron should be eaten generously.

Thiamin (Vitamin B-1) is obtainable in whole grain cereals — potatoes — all the dehydrated vegetables — leafy and other vegetables and most fruits. Whole grain cereals, most vegetables and most fruits also furnish Riboflavin (Vitamin B-2). Whole grain cereals, potatoes, green vegetables and many fruits supply Niacin. Milk, milk products and eggs are rich in Riboflavin also.

When a housewife is informed on these essential points, she will not find it difficult to plan her meals so that all the necessary elements of nutrition are supplied.

Some Ways to Stretch the Meat Supply

Liver is a 6 star scorer on vitamin lists — and it is one of the variety meats that needn't be included in the meat sharing arithmetic. Try liver with scalloped potatoes, first browning the seasoned and floured slices in fat, then arranging layers of liver and potatoes in a baking dish — using raw potatoes — and cutting the liver in small pieces. Add onion if liked — the top layer should be potatoes — cover with milk and bake, covered, for one hour at 350 degrees. When potatoes are tender, remove cover and brown nicely.

Meat extenders for Sausage—Chop raw cabbage rather fine, chop apples also, arrange in layers in a baking dish, make sausage meat into cakes and fry a nice brown, but don't over cook — place on top the cabbage and apples, add a tablespoon of vinegar to the sausage fat and pour over all — cover and bake until the cabbage and apples are tender — potatoes baked at the same oven heat make a top accompaniment to this good dish.

Why not Soup?—A rich vegetable soup is a meal in itself — at least no other main dish is required — start with a boiling bone — beef, ham, knuckle of veal, an oxtail, or bones trimmed from the Sunday roast — simmer in plenty of water, and add vegetables — all kind available — with rice or barley — always boil these cereals separately, and when tender rinse and add to the soup — season well, serve with toast squares, and watch the plates come back for seconds.

after another. The Andersonmen crushed Cheltenham, 51-16, on the latter's court last Friday and then sealed its greatest offensive heights when it submerged Upper Darby under a flood of field goals that resulted in a 90-28 count at Downs Gym on Tuesday.

Having increased its two year winning streak to 16 in a row and its three year streak in the league to 22 straight, the Maroon will probably be able to smash all existing scoring records in the league when it invades weak, last place Abington this Saturday.

Captain Greer Helmdel was the biggest noise in L.M.'s most recent victories, scoring 37 points in the two games. He tallied 18 against Cheltenham and collected 19 more against Upper Darby. This, despite the fact he played in only part of the games.

Don Evans has been the next heaviest scorer, but Art Campbell, Phil Harman and Dick Whiting have been vital cogs and have held up their end in a big way. The reserves have also been doing exceptional well, making the most of their chances to gain experience under fire.

L. M. ran up a 21-10 halftime lead on Cheltenham and by intermission in the Upper Darby game was comfortably ahead by 28-13.

Letters To The Editor

Our Town,
Narberth,
Pennsylvania.
Dear Sir:

The country owes a debt of gratitude to the editor for his able leadership in the recent scrap drive. But the danger of a wartime steel shortage is not over.

Conclusive evidence indicates the imminent exhaustion of the high grade iron ores of the vast Mesaba open pits, in the Lake Superior region from which we have been getting 85 percent of the ore used in our steel production.

However, no less than 26 of our states possess known but abandoned or undeveloped resources of rich iron ore, in deposits large enough for economical reduction to metallic iron in small furnaces close to the mine-sites, according to information presented to the House Steel Shortage Investigation Committee. The opening up of these widespread local sources of iron ore would provide an abundance of prime melting material and thus completely relieve the situation created by our recurrent shortage of scrap iron.

Your comments and opinions, either published or personal and any suggestions you care to make on this timely subject will be most sincerely appreciated.

Very sincerely yours,
Frank W. Boykin, Chairman,
Steel Shortage Investigating Committee.

The resolution was one of the Main Line Assemblyman's first legislative acts of the new session. In his resolution Cadwalader said the State tax was unfair and inequitable.

He said the tax was "wrung from the hands of those depending for their living upon constantly shrinking income derived from securities assessed fictitiously on the little that is payable thereon."

Cadwalader has been named chairman of the counties committee and is a member of the corporation and industry, education, fisheries, mines and mining, railroads and railways and townships committees.

Spirit of 1943!

Modern methods, modern efficiency—but the same old flaming spirit of 1776. What else could give men the vitality to produce tanks, guns, planes, munitions in such enormous quantities? What else could enable the railroads of America to handle millions of troops with such precision and smoothness . . . to haul take the tonnage of war materials pre-war experts estimated them capable of . . . to take over the great oil and miscellaneous cargoes of coastwise shipping, and yet keep war transportation rolling? That spirit, as much as mechanical excellence and natural resources, is America's strength. Its "secret weapon". Pennsylvania Railroad is proud to pay tribute to it, and to be a part of it.

WHAT ABOUT

ICE CREAM IN WARTIME?

ICE CREAM for many years has been America's favorite dairy food. And nowhere has its traditional goodness been more celebrated than in the area served by your own dairy firm, Supplee.

Now that we are in a total war, everything we buy must be analyzed for its relation to the war effort. Many parts of the food picture have changed almost overnight. So with ice cream.

There may be some who have thought of ice cream as a delicacy, occasional treat or just a fill-in. Today we know it is a vital food. Because ice cream contains, in considerable quantity, butterfat. And butterfat, with its unmatched content of vitamin A, as you know, becomes a strategic material in wartime, second almost to the vital metals that make our planes and guns.

From the "stockpile" of all the available butterfat in America, in all of the forms of milk products that contain it, must now come not only the basic requirements of your family and all American families, but all the needs of our enormous, rapidly increasing armies, of our underfed fighting allies, of the helpless people we rescue from the Dictators' sentence of starvation.

That is why the War Production Board has limited the amount of ice cream to be made this month. While butterfat and milk solids available for ice cream in January have been cut to one-half of the amount in October, 1942, this is not as severe as it might seem. People eat less ice cream in January than in October, so there will be a substantial amount available.

You can regard this supply of rich, wholesome ice cream as a serious contribution to your family's war diet, both for grand morale effect and for important nutritional values.

For not only does ice cream give you a share of your butterfat requirements, including precious vitamin A, but its milk solids also contribute much to your daily nutritional needs. You get milk proteins of high quality, valuable calcium, phosphorus and other minerals, thiamin, riboflavin and other food elements essential to vigorous health.

Even though flavors are necessarily limited, we believe you will find an appealing selection at a convenient store in your neighborhood. We will make regular deliveries of fresh supplies during each week this month. So, if your favorite is occasionally sold out, your dealer will have it again in a day or so. Still More Letters From Our Men In Service

 Never forgets. Thanks—a lot!!
 ED. SHEWELL.

Instead of using the typewriter I thought I would write this short note. I must have received my Christmas Box from Narberth. It seems that somehow they got the gift wrapped and the package traveled all over before it finally reached me.

I want to thank you for the very useful and numerous articles which the package contained. It certainly had everything a Service man can desire. Narberth is a very nice town and we in the service are proud of it.

ROBERT KNAPP

I certainly appreciated the very useful gifts from the citizens of Narberth. It is great to come from a town which is so kind.

BARRY S. MILLOR JR.

I was a little surprised to receive a package from you a week before Christmas. Being true to my word, I did not open the box until Christmas day.

I had previously written home that I could not go to a store and buy anything I wanted. I did not know what it would be. So I know I was not in a hurry to open the package. I opened the box from your gift and found a most useful and thoughtful gift. The spirit that prompted the thought, work and effort to send that package was a genuine blessing that we all need. For all of which I do indeed thank you.

H. A. TERRY

Please extend my thanks to the entire committee and to the people of Narberth for their wonderful gift. Late in the Army has few comforts to offer and those numerous letters and extra articles we have so very kindly sent me are certainly appreciated. I can also assure you that hearing from the people at home is as nice a gift as itself as a Serviceman would desire. Thanks again.

PETER F. FINNIMORE

I want to express my hearty appreciation for the many fine gifts I found in the grand box you sent me. All of them are really useful to a man in the Service. It was a lot of fun to open each of the individual packages—several of my friends were with me at the time and all expressed amazement at the number and quality of the gifts. Again many thanks and I'm sure all the boys who received the boxes were just as delighted as I was.

H. SEAFER ROSE

I certainly want to thank the people of Narberth for the fine Christmas box. Due to my moving around I did not receive it until January 2nd, but that did not detract any of its appreciation. It was wonderful.

NED BARTLETT

I received your lovely box this afternoon and I was surely glad to get it. It certainly makes me happy and proud to live in a town like Narberth. Thanks loads for everything.

THOMAS S. GALLAGHER

I want to thank you kindly for your great thoughtfulness in sending me that wonderful Christmas package and I appreciate very, very much all the many useful things it contained.

MARIO CASAVECCHIO

I was very grateful and much surprised to receive such a wonderful present and memento of friendship from back home. Indeed it was very heart-warming to see those pictures of the old home-town and the faces of so many people I know. All the gifts were simply grand. Yes, Bob Squier, you home-folks are all doing a wonderful job, and please pray that we may also do a good American job. You may depend on it that I will never forget your great kindness.

PATRICK MCSORLEY

Received your most welcome Christmas box and was certainly very happy to receive it; you can bet the gifts will come in handy and your kindness will always be remembered. Thank you ever so much.

A. DELMORE

Thank you very much. I got the swell box a little late, but it sure was good to know that Narberth hadn't forgotten her Army boys. Will write later to let you know all about camp Polk.

THEODORE J. FINN

I enjoyed your Christmas Carton very much. Each attractive package afforded a complete surprise to me and to about 15 other men in my barracks. They got as big a thrill out of it as I did, and that's saying a lot. Thanks very much.

JAMES W. BARNETT, JR.

I appreciate more than I can say all the trouble you went to in order to see that I received one of those very fine presents from the Boro citizens. We have boys in the camp here from all over Pennsylvania and you should have heard them when they found out what a grand lot of people there are in my home-town.

I read in "Our Town" those letters from the boys far from home. I know most of them and they do mean all they said, because I know how pleased I was, as well as being very proud to be from Narberth. Thank you, sincerely.

MATT CALLAHAN

I received the package and wish to thank you for it with all my heart. Everything in it is dandy and I feel fine when you do this for me. I must try hard to deserve the good will.

LOUIS LUCIANO

Thank you very much for the lovely gifts which were made possible by the Citizens of Narberth. I am proud of the fact that I am a resident of such a fine and thoughtful community. Each grand gift was most useful. It sure made all the boys down here wish they lived in Narberth. Opening my package on Christmas morning, it brought me in spirit much nearer to home, especially the pictures of the flag-raising, with many familiar faces, not to overlook Joe Maguire's Gas Station. It was certainly great to have a glimpse of the Main st. of Borough once more. Many thanks.

EDWARD J. BURGESS

Received your wonderful gifts and appreciated them very much. I certainly owe many thanks to the Citizens of Narberth who have been so generous to me and to all the other Service Men from our town.

FRANCIS J. DIXON

I send my humble appreciation in my own way, in my own words, for the splendid assortment of practical gifts you have so generously sent me.

Friends, no one knows it surer than myself, when one is a long, long way from home, what a kind thought can do in the way of brightening long and lonely days out here in the desert where we are maneuvering.

I am truly appreciative of what you have done and it would be a singular pleasure to thank each and everyone of you. You have made me a proud and privileged soldier.

PATRICK P. CURRAN

More words cannot possibly express fully how much I appreciate the Christmas packages that you sent to me and to my comrades. Believe me, the physical contents of the carton are perfect; but to me what is even above that is the thought that your friends are true friends, and that they are not letting you or the home front down! Thanks to each and everyone of you!

RICHARD N. (DICK) BUTLER

I did not open the big box you sent me until Christmas morning, and I certainly had a swell time unwrapping each article. It made my Christmas here on the desert a happy one, and I gratefully appreciate the work and thought that made it possible.

Everything in the box was a pleasant surprise and each item was just the tops, down to the very nice letter written by Bob Squier. That had certainly did a marvelous job for one of his age.

It makes me proud to be from a town where the people do such nice things, and incidentally there was no one else in my outfit who received a gift from their home-place. This in itself proves, to me and to you, that Narberth is just about the best town in the whole U. S. A., at least I think so and have for a long time. Thank you again and may we soon see victory.

CHARLES D. HEBKEL

This is just a note to express, a little more fully than the postal card, my thanks to all of you for the splendid Christmas box. Perhaps you think I wasn't tempted to open the box before the 25th. You should know me better! You would have enjoyed seeing the fellows in my wing of the barracks gather around my bunk as I opened your package and, before I finished unwrapping the individual gifts, all those assembled became aware of the fact that there is a great town called Narberth in the State of Pennsylvania.

I won't recount the value, practical or recreational, of each of the contents. Suffice it to say that there was an admirable variety, well-balanced, of necessities and luxuries which anyone would be glad to receive.

I have thought how much that box means to men right here in our own Country—and then I think, or try to think, how much it must mean to those from Narberth who are serving overseas.

There's something about our Home-Town that you can't express in words, but those Christmas boxes said it so well. They spoke to all of us for all of you. We will try to be worthy recipients of that message.

WEEKLY NEWS LETTER

TO YOU WHO LIVE AND BUY IN NARBERTH

Narberth merchants and their customers have growing wartime problems which only cooperation will solve. But at this time of the year there is none so urgent as keeping warm.

From one of the members of the Narberth Business Council we pass along these 10 hints that may save from 15 to 50 percent of your fuel oil consumption.

1. Draw window shades all the way down to the window sill. This applies to all unused rooms during the day, and all rooms at night.
2. Shut off the heat in all unused rooms — particularly those with large areas of window glass — and close them off from rooms that are heated.
3. Don't "air out" the house without lowering the thermostat, setting it at 50 degrees during the airing process. Raise it to normal when airing is completed.
4. If you sleep with the windows open, place a small throw rug at the base of door. In forced warm air systems with a return grill, it is extremely important to keep this closed.

5. Make sure your fireplace damper is closed when fireplace is not in use — fireplace chimneys can be extremely wasteful of heat. Damp off the coal fire, or turn the thermostat down, when the family is gathered around the fireplace. This will also save fuel.

6. Don't heat your garage. It probably stays five to ten degrees warmer than the weather outside, and if you have your motor protected by anti-freeze, a heated garage is not essential.
7. Weather strip doors and windows.
8. Insulate with storm sash on doors and windows.
9. Apply insulation in ceiling or attic.
10. Blow insulation materials into spaces between inside and outside walls.

P. S.—An individual, a business council, a town grows, through constructive suggestions. You may have one that would point the way to a better future. If so, address it to the Narberth Business Council, Narberth, Pa. It will be confidentially treated and carefully considered. N. B. C.

A Wartime Slogan For Merchandising Headaches

William H. Mapes, owner of the Ben Franklin Store at 228 Haverford av., Narberth, has a 1943 slogan for the wartime merchant.

It is: "Do a better job with merchandise that is obtainable."

Mapes' slogan has grown out of the headaches of the variety store business, which is often referred to as a "5 & 10." His major headache is a shortage of staple merchandise. As of January 1, nearly 40 percent of the staple items had been discontinued by manufacturers.

"When the merchandise in one of our 22 departments becomes unobtainable," explains Mapes, "we look for something new to take its place. For example, tinware, enamelware and aluminumware were always good sellers. Now we get none."

"Instead of throwing up our hands and saying 'there goes seven percent of our business,' we are replacing that department by enlarging our glassware stock to include glass cooking utensils. We are adding unpainted furniture and creating a horticultural department."

"Through the necessities of war we may lose some items but you will find us in there punching with some item you never saw in a '5 & 10' before. It is up to merchants to find the bright side of the picture."

UNCLE SAM says.

"Make your shoes last longer." Let us repair and renew them for wear and comfort.
